

ABOUT IZABELA

Founder of Izabela Lundberg International, Creator of The “High Performance Impact Evolution” Method, and on of the top global motivational, inspirational and transformational speakers on Leadership & Organizational Development, Izabela Lundberg has a rare combination of experience, education and talent.

EXPERIENCE:

Having appeared on a broad range of TV, Radio and Digital Media platforms (logo slider bellow) for her expertise on Transformational Leadership & High Performance Impact Team Development, Izabela is also known as Executive Consultant, Speaker, and Trainer to Fortune 500 companies. She’s popular blogger, often featured on a broad range of influential platforms including LinkedIn under Leadership & Management Group and creator of highly successful and transformational program, “The High Performance Impact Evolution” Method, used for developing high performing committed and motivated individuals among executive and business leaders and professional coaches and athletes.

EDUCATION:

She carries Bachelor Degrees in Education and Global Business Management, and Masters Degree in Leadership & Organization from the University of Denver, with a focus on Strategic Innovation & Change and Organizational Development & Training.

Izabela has conducted over 50 trainings and workshops, over 20 webinars, and she spoke at over 55 conferences nationally and internationally.

TALENT:

She's the author of the #1 International Best Selling Book, The World Messenger: From Fear to Greatness: Business, Sports & Life Lessons. Further, Izabela traveled the world to over 40 countries, worked closely with people from over 80 countries, and she lived in six countries by age 21, and she speaks six languages. Her passion is infectious and inspiring, her message is transformational, and her energy is contagious from the stage to every audience around the globe!